End User License Agreement

By accepting this End User License Agreement, you agree to not sell, give or share this copyrighted software in any way to any other party. Doing so will result in full prosecution as allowed by law. This software is meant for your own personal use. Our editor software is exclusive to authorized dealers and professional installers; therefore, URC does not provide programming support. A programming manual for your specific model remote control will be provided for your reference.

You are responsible for keeping a back-up copy of this software's set-up file on a disk or flash drive, as this link will expire. You may be denied software if the information on this form does not meet our requirements or if any information is missing. You may have other rights that vary from state to state and which overrule this document.

I have read the above EULA and agree to its conditions.
